About Me

My husband Charlie and I married in July of 2014. In no particular order I enjoy monogrammed things, drinking coffee, hiking, reading, traveling, being outside in my hammock, baking, browsing Pinterest and being crafty. I went skydiving the summer after I graduated from college — what an awesome experience! I've traveled to 34 states and 11 countries on three continents. I'm a Clemson fan. I also like owls. You'll realize that soon after walking into my classroom.
