

Melissa Kennedy

Seventh and Eighth Grade Science

About Me

Science was my favorite subject as a child, and now I get to help students become better scientists by working actively in the classroom. I am married with two children, and love spending time with my husband and my two favorite girls: six-year old Macey and four-year old Mallie. In my spare time I enjoy traveling, being outdoors, walking and relaxing.

Credentials

- Bachelors in Middle Level Education, University of South Carolina
- Certification in Middle Level Science
- Certified in First Aid/CPR/AED
- First year teaching